"Not Possible Since Manchukuo Crisis."

JAPANESE ENVOY'S VIEWS.

Washington, To-day.

Japan would regard it as an unfriendly act if foreign countries with commercial interests in China ignored Japan's request that she be consulted before transactions are concluded. declared the Japanese Ambassador to Washington, Mr. Saito, in an interview with the Washington Star. He added that foreign nations had not the remotest idea of how to deal with the Chinese.

Mr. Saito mentioned that a group of French bankers were floating a China loan in the European market, which had "considerably worried his Government."

If foreign, husiness representatives ignored Japan's request, the responsibility would fall on the Chinese Government.

Asked whether Japan might not have co-operated with 6ther powers in the control of China. Mr. Saito replied.

"Such co-operation would have been possible some time ago, but not since the Manchukuo crisis."-Reuter.

POLICE AMBUSHED DURING CLASHES STRIKE GENERAL CAUSED BY

Madrid, To-day.

One person was killed, five seriously injured, and 120 arrests made during the anti-Fascist rioting here, yesterday. The casualties include Mr. Allan Deller, a London youth, the winner of a travelling scholarship, who has been in Madrid for a fortnight, studying the language. He was shot in the head and chest.

A convent was set on fire and a bomb was thrown at one of the principal hotels. The nerves of the police are jumpy. They are being subject to ambushes of all sorts including firing from

Paleface Indians Ousted by Navajos

As the first step in a New Deal for the American Indian, a solemn tribal council at Gallup, N. M., recently banned from membership in the Navajo tribe anyone not a Navajo by birth. The resolution "expels" from bonorary membership many celebrities crowned with war bonnets on ceremonial occasions in the past. Among the distinguished paleface Navajos thus expelled are former Mayor James J. Walker of New York, Lupe Velet, Mary Pickford, Jackie Coogan, Tom Mix and Ramon Navarro, of the movies. Furthermore, under the leadership of Jim Thorpe, noted Indian athlete, a new code for Indian film players is sought from NRA. Thorpe objects to his race being portrayed on the screens by Mexicans, Chinese, Hawaiians and Negroes, while many authentic Indians are available and unemployed.

Run To Castle Peak Yesterday.

"FOX AND HOUNDS" NEXT SUNDAY

The delightfully warm weather this week-end induced a strong muster of the Hong Kong Cycling Club to turn out on the run via Castle Peak Road yesterday.

Leaving Shamshuipo at 2.30 p.m. a good climb over the hill was made to Gindrinkers Bay when the pace was increased, and a steady 15 m.p.h. was maintained till the party had almost reached. San-tin, after enjoying the varied and beautiful scenery of the coast

Shortly afterwards a discussion resulted in a change of plan, and it was decided to return via the coast route, rather then make the stiff climb from Tai-Po. On turning a fast pace into the wind was kept up, and an enjoyable refresher was partaken of at the Castle Peak Cafeteria at 5.30 p.m. Resuming the trip the Club suffered their only delay in the whole ride, when the Captain's (Mr. C. £1,000 FOR JANE AUSTEN LETTER

Less Than £700 Earned With Four Novels.

DOMESTIC DUTIES FIRST

According to her nephew and biographer. Jane Austen was a rather attractive young woman. He describes her as follows: "Her figure was rather tall and slender, her step light and firm, and her whole appearance expressive of health and animation. In complexion she was a clear brunette with a rich colour; she had full round cheeks, with mouth and nose small and well-formed bright hazel eyes, and brown hair forming natural curls close round her

Jane was born in the little country parsonage of Steventon, Hants, where her father was rector of this and the adjoining parash, ministering to only 300 parishioners. She was the youngest of seven children, and spent an uneventful life for 16 years at the parsonage.

In 1801 the family moved to Bath, because of the rector's illhealth. He died there four years, later. In the meantime Jane had) begun to write, but would never allow her literary work in interfere with her domestic duties.

Her best-known work, "Pride and Prejudice," and also her first, was written in 1796 and 1797, but turned down by the publishers, although her father had agreed to stand the risk. "Sense and Sensibility," which had actually been started before "Pride and Prejudice," was the next to be finished, but it was not until 1811 that it; was accepted and paid for (£150) by a London publisher.

Jane told a friend about "Pride, and Prejudice:" "Egerton gives £110 for it. I would rather have had £150, but we could not both be pleased, and I am not at all surprised that he should not choose to hazard so much."

Dillinger, Henchmen and Jail He Fled

From sneak thief to America's "Public Enemy No: 1" in the short span of six months is the achievement of John Dillinger, Mid-West bank robber and killer, whose latest exploit was sensational escape from Lake County jail at Crown Point, Ind. His first major crime was committed in June, 1933, when he robbed the bank at Dalesville, Ind. Three other members of his gang, Harry Pierpont, Charles Makley and Russell Clark, are now in jail at Lima, O., awaiting trial in slaying of Sheriti Jesse Surber, killed when Dillinger was rescued from the Allen County jail last October. Since then the gang has raided 12 banks in four States, getting away with more than $200,000. Escape from Crown Point jail was regarded as impossible because of the large force of deputies armed with muchine guns who guarded the jail night and day. Mrs. Lillian Holley, Lake County's woman sheriff, asserted she would shoot Dillinger on sight if ever they meet again.

"NO RULE AGAINST WIDOWER TAKING CONCUBINE"

Mr. Hu Wa-yun, a lawyer of the Canton Bar, gave expert evidence at the resumption of the hearing of the claim by Ling! Cheung-nang and Wong Sochung, concubines, for letters of administration to the $20.000 'estate of Lo Wai-cheun, deceased, before the Chief Justice, the Hon. Mr. A. D. A. McGregor, at the Supreme Court this morning.

Mr. Hin-shing-lo, instructed by Messrs. Wilkinson and Grist. represented the plaintiffs. The defendant, Lo Pak-wai, alias Lo Kwai-woon, appeared in person. assisted by Messrs. Russ and Co. Mr. Hu Wa-yun stated that according to the laws of the Ching Dynasty formulated in 1843. there was no express rule against a widower taking a concubine and, further, that it was the custom of many great personages in China to take concubines during the life of their wives. In Chinese law, he said, a wife must be married with the proper ceremonies, and takes the first place in the household, while the concubine is merely bought with no ceremony and is classed. legally, as a junior or secondary

ALL-IN WRESTLING BANNED

Johannesburg City Council's Action.

SEQUEL TO ROUGH FIGHT

Johannesburg. All-in wrestling is to be banned by the Johannesburg City Council. This is the direct outcome of the wrestling match recently staged between Henry Irlinger, of the United States and Ben Sherman, of Canada. The fight ended in a violent uproar. Sherman's head was caught in the ropes and his opponent attempted to strangle him by pulling his feet. When the referee intervened he was attacked.

City councillors referred to wrestling as witnessed on the Rand as "brutal and degrading."

"Bitting another man's toe and strangling him with a rope" was not considered a sport at all.—Reu-

Nash Dubonnet, who was revealed as the mother of Andrew D Kirwan, held in New York on charge of nurder on the high seas, was internationally famous a few years ago as the world's best-dressed woman, as well as being one of its most married. Her present husband, Paul Dubonnet, scion of the noted French wine . family, is her fifth spouse. Her first, John S. Kirwan, son of a New York broker, she married at 17. The union ended in annulment. Second on the list was Winfield Sifton. Canadian millionaire. That ended in divorce. Number three was Captain John Nuch, of the British Army, who gave the beauty the name by which she is best known. Fourth was Prince Subit Bry, royal Egyptian, whose marital voyage was shortest of all Since the birth of a buby daughter, Miss Anne Patricia Lolange Dubonnet, three years ago, the beauty has forsaken the casinos and gay spots of Europe.

SPECIAL TO CHINA MAIL 0 (By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegra-phic Messages Ordinance, 1894, Re-0 scined April 22, 11.47 a.m.)

Washington, Yesterday. Following the conference between SPANISH SOLDIERS President Roosevelt and the silver Senators, at the White House, on Saturday, a spokesman of the White House stated:

"There was a thorough discussion of the whole world monetary question, including gold and silver. There will be further conferences.".

The conferees were reluctant to comment, but they indicated that little progress had been made.

Senator Harrison said that no conclusions had been reached although views were exchanged fully. -United Press, per S.C. Gold Bar
